A TOUR OF INSPECTION

Corporation Commission Coes on a Trip To-Day.

EVERYTHING NOW IN ORDER

Smoothly-Mr. Upshur's Good System-A Number of Charters Granted, sisting of Judge Bev. T. Crump, Messrs. Honry C, Stuart and Henry Fairfox, accompanied by Mr. John A. Upshur, secretary of the commission, will leave this morning via the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway for the annual inspection of the properties of that company within this State. They will go west from this city via the James River division, traveling in the private cars of the president and general manager, and will be accompanied on the trip by President George W. Stevens and General Manager C. E. Doyle. At Clifton Forge the party will change to the main line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, and will go thence to Alleghany, on the West Virginia line. Roturning, the party will take the main ine from Alleghany to this city, arriving here on Thursday evening. On the trip they will go over and inspect of the road having been inspected last week.

Later on the commission will inspect sisting of Judge Bey, T. Crump, Messrs of the road having been inspected last week.

Later on the commission will inspect the other lines of railway in the State.

AT WORK IN EARNEST.

The commission is now getting down to work in real earnest in the new quarfraring the city Hall. Secretary Upshur, who has a remarkable talent for organization, has evolved order out of chaos, existing when the commission located in the Library building in inadequate quarters, and now has everything so arranged as to greatly facilitate work. Without a practical railroad man the commission would have been greatly handleapped in its work, and the selection of Mr. Upshur, with his great capacity for work, has proved an excellent one.

The other force in the offices of the commission, besides Chief Book-keèper Wysor and Bailliff Williams, embraces Mr. Joseph Newby, formerly with the ographer; the Misses Powell, in clarical capacities, and Mr. Norvell Atkinson, formerly a page in the Constitutional lowenther with the commission and its secretary greaws.

BABY'S ECZEMA

Top of Head Covered with Scales Which Peeled off Taking Hale with Them.

CURED BY CUTICURA

"My baby was about aix weeks old when the top of her head became covered with thick scales, which would peel and come off, taking the hair with it. It would soon form again and be as bad as before. I tried several things and then went to the doctor. He said it was Eczema, and prescribed an ointmost, which did not do any good. A friend spoke of Cuticura Boap, I tried it and read on the wrapper about Cuticura Ointment as a remedy for Eczema. I bought a box and washed her head in warm water and Cuticura Boap and gently combed the scales off. They did not come back and her hair grew out fine and thick. Bhe is now a year and a half old and has no trace of Eczema. You have my permission to publish my letter."

MODELS ALL IN OF J. E. B. STUART

Nine Competing Equestrian Designs Are Entered in Contest.

Seven artists are in the compelition for the award of the J. E. B. Stuart Monument Association, with nine fine equestrian models, three of them being submitted by one sculptor, Mr. L. Amatels. The compelition ended by limitation on Monday, August 22d, and when the doors were finsily closed and locked yesterday morning there were designs in the room submitted by L. Amatels (three), George T. Brewster, Louis A. Gudebrod, Edward Moraham, William Slevers and F. E. Triebel, from the North, and T. A. Wellet, of this city. Mr. Slevers is a "Richmond boy," having formerly lived here. The models, which are of course, of varying degrees of excellence, were numbered in the order of their arrival, and will be examined and voted upon by their numbers only. They are all in place in the hall over Brown'e cafe, at No. 522 East Broad Street, where the committee will meet at some early date to pick the winner. In the meantime, in order to prevent and avoid any of the trickery and wire-pulling which so often disgraces art competitions, the public are to be rigidly excluded from the model room, under the terms of the following order, which was posted with Mr. Cooke, the proprietor of the cafe, Monday morning:

2. E. B. Stuart Monument Competition:

The competition having closed by limitation on August 22d, and the committee being responsible for the models, the model room is ordered locked to all visitions except the Committee of Award until further notice. This is the custom and tho rule in competitions of this kind.

No one, artist or otherwise, except the members of the Executive Committee, unless some emergency shall require it. Those officers are:
Captain W. Ben Palmer, secretary.

Mr. Jeffry Montague, assistant secretary.

Mr. E. A. Catlin, treasurer.

The other members of the Executive Committee are General the Hon. Fitzhugh Leo, ex-officio president of the Veteran Cavairy Association of the Army of Northern Virginia, which is popularly known as the J. E. B. Stuart Monument Association; Colonel the Hon. Charles T. O'Ferrall; Major A. R. Venable, Captain the Hon. John Lamb; Judge E. C. Minor and Messre. Joseph Bryan, James R. Gordon, John W. Gordon, P. H. Mayo, Frank T. Sutton, Joseph W. Thomas, James Vass, L. B. Vaughan and James R. Werth.

R. Werth.

It will be remembered that the monument is to be erected on the edge of the Capitol Hill, right in front of the pillared portico. It will cost $20,000, exclusive of the pedestal, which will be built by the committee.

Favor His Candidacy.

Friends of Mr. W. J. Binford, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the House of Delegates from Henrico, are displeased by a recent publication in a local paper concerning the contest for the primary nomination, and in which Mr. Thomas W. Gardner is referred to as the representative of the church and law and order element of the county. The objection is that this characterization implies that other candidates are not favored by the church-going population and the forces of law and order. This is emphatically denied by friends of Mr. Binford and by other candidates.

Mr. Binford's friends claim for him that four of the six white ministers of the county are condisuly supporting him for the nomination and that he has always as a citizen enjoyed the friendship and sympathy of the best-majement of the county population. Mr. Binford is content to await the verdict of the people at the poll of voters on September 3d, and is satisfied that even if he does not get a plurality of the votes cast, he will certainly get his full share of the votes of the church-going and law and order element of the county.
